

THE ROADMAP TO YOUR NEXT VEHICLE

Buying a vehicle can be a complicated process. Simply trying to understand what options are available can feel like a challenge on its own. To help, we've put together a simple list of things to consider to help guide you through the process of getting your next vehicle!

1

DEFINE WHAT YOU'RE LOOKING FOR

- Type of Vehicle
- Size, Space and Seats
- Ownership Duration
- New vs. Used
- Budget

2

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

- Insurance Costs
- Financing Options
- Warranty
- Ownership Costs
- Maintenance Costs
- Resale Value

4

PRACTICAL AND EXPERIENTIAL ASPECTS

- Test Drive
- Vehicle History (for used cars)
- Ownership Experience
- Dealer Reputation
- Negotiation

3

VEHICLE ATTRIBUTES AND PERFORMANCE

- Resale Value
- Environmental Impact
- Technology/Infotainment
- Color and Style
- Fuel Efficiency
- Reliability
- Safety Features

5

MAKING A FINAL DECISION

Remember that your specific needs and preferences will play a significant role in your decision. Take your time, do thorough research and consider all these factors before making a final decision on a car purchase. It's okay to be unsure, as long as you are confident when you make your final decision.

